

Privacy Policy

Genesis Equipment and Chemicals is an established and professional manufacturer of quality carpet cleaning products. As such we are committed to providing you with the highest level of customer service. Part of this service is protecting the privacy of our clients and complying with the new sections of the National Privacy Principles established under the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988. With this in mind, Genesis would like to take this opportunity to advise that we are ever conscious of the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of our customer's personal information. You can be assured that we only collect personal information that is necessary for us to carry out the various functions and services we undertake. What's more, we take all possible steps to ensure that customer information is not disclosed to - or accessed by any unauthorised persons.

Personal information we collect:

Personal information will be collected from you directly when you submit your details through our web site or paper form and usually falls into the following categories: Customer Information submitted and obtained from the customer directly and other sources in connection with purchasing any products; distributor information and feedback information about incidents in the workplace; information obtained to assist in managing customer and business relationships; results of technical tests. If you choose not to provide the required personal information, our ability to deliver our services for you may be restricted and we may not be able to provide you with the level of service on which we pride ourselves.

How we use your personal information:

We primarily hold personal information for the following purposes:

Who we may share this information with ...

We may disclose your personal information, to a third party, for the purposes for which it is primarily held or for a related secondary purpose. It is our policy not to pass on any personal information without the consent of the customer concerned. Generally this would be limited to; our clients; our associated companies and subsidiaries; our insurers; a professional association or registration body that has a proper interest in the disclosure of your personal and sensitive information; any person with a lawful entitlement to obtain the information including circumstances where we are under a lawful duty of care to disclose information; law enforcement agencies (where required by legislation) to verify whether you have a criminal record.

Security of information:

Genesis Equipment and Chemicals will take all reasonable steps to keep secure any personal information which we hold and to ensure that the information we collect, use and disclose is accurate, complete and up-to-date. However, the accuracy of that information depends to a large extent on the information you provide. That's why we recommend that you - Notify us if there are any errors in your personal information; and keep us up-to-date with changes to personal information such as your name, address, email address, change in employment details. Personal information is stored in either a secure server or secure files with only approved staff having access to this information.
